

Hello Everyone.

I am here to open up, apologize and share my thoughts properly about the current situations.

First and foremost, to address my mistakes. I am sorry to all the victims of Bapha that felt I enabled his behaviour and tried to silence them. I should've stood up for the victims that I didn't know and shown support. Rather than trying to mend an evil person by giving advice, I should've shown him the door to walk out of my life. I was a coward.

Now to the victims I do know:

To Arby, I deeply regret coming after you with such aggression and horrible behaviour. I was blinded by rage and fury and I was destructive on behalf of my partner and I let that cloud my judgement. I took the route of loyalty > morality and I see that now. You did the right thing on speaking up. I should've supported you. I failed you as a friend.

To Aishi: I'm sorry for my actions towards you last year. I am sorry you've felt silenced and endured that all this time. You deserve to speak your truth.

To everyone else in my life that I have touched negatively, I never meant to cause anyone harm or torment. I will apologize privately to more that I have wronged in my lifetime and I will continue to atone.

If you saw that I left servers and deleted my own private server. That is true. I left every server that I do not personally own and are owned by my friends. This was not meant to harm or offend anyone. I don't want those associated with me to feel like they are harboring someone who committed wrongs. I wanted to shrink my personal bubble because in a darker place in my mind, everything needed to end. Including my own life.

Last night I had an encounter with police officers investigating my attempt at my own life. I am in extensive care with people I trust. I am scheduled to get medical and mental health treatment this week.

Regardless, I want to learn and grow from this so my dms are still open to whoever needs closure on further matters. I will be taking a hiatus while the treatment is in process and hopefully I will come back a stronger, kinder, and wiser person.

In the end I have made mistakes of being manipulative and selective of my support, not standing up for victims and enabling abusers. To all the people who were wronged by me, my closest friends, people who trusted me. I'm sorry. It won't happen again. I'll do better, whatever it takes.
